Weekly Feedback Report	CONTACT ADDRESS: ltu@mediasupport.org	Issued: 12 Nov 2026

Brief Summary

Many callers to Radio Ergo's audience feedback platform in the week 5-11 November 2026 expressed well-being and gratitude for good rainfall, especially in locations across central and southern regions. Many said their farms were flourishing, and their livestock were doing better. Quite a few callers noted that they had not witnessed the destructive rain and flooding as forecast in the preparedness alerts that they were hearing on the radio. One caller in Sanag described flooding and livestock losses. Several complained about health risks from mosquitoes. There were a few calls from pockets of the north and Hirshabelle about little or no rainfall, intense heat, and harsh livelihood impacts from drought. The following summarises the calls by theme.

Floods – a caller in Garadag, Sanag region, appealed for help on behalf of his community that had been affected by heavy rainfall causing flash floods and the drowning of livestock. A caller in an unspecified location in Hirshabelle said his son was killed when he was swimming in stagnant water and electrocuted by faulty electricity wires in contact with the water. After this tragedy the father called for the water that had collected from heavy rainfall to be drained away.

El Nino messaging feedback – A female caller in Marodi-Jeh said they had been hearing about heavy rain in the weather forecasts on the radio. She noted that people were migrating to Hawd area, where there had been rain. A caller in Dollow, Gedo region, said they did not plant their crops due to fear of floods. They now had rainfall but still hadn't seen any floods. A caller in Gonyale, Hiran region, said the Shabelle river level had gone down and they were glad to be having good rain. A few others confirmed hearing the forecasts and alerts and being thankful not to have experienced any disaster.

Health - a caller in Abudwak, Galgadud region, said children and adults were being infected by watery diarrhoea. Callers in Galgadud also complained about mosquitoes breeding in stagnant water creating health risks. Others in southern regions also complained about mosquito infestations in Wanleweyn, Bardera, and Kismayo.

Jobs – callers in Abudwak, Galgadud, and El-jiir, M. Shabelle, said despite the rainfall people were facing unemployment and needed opportunities.

Conflict – a caller in Burhakaba, Bay region, said they had good rainfall but needed peace and an end to the conflict.

Drought & water shortage – a female caller in Hargeisa said they were facing prolonged drought that had wiped out their livestock. She said they were impoverished and needed help. A caller in Sanag region said they faced extreme heat, drought and water shortage. A caller in Qardo, Bari region, also said they faced heat and drought and were praying for rain. A caller in an unspecified part of Hiran said the rain had failed there. A caller in Warsheikh, M. Shabelle, said drought conditions prevailed in the area and surrounding areas including villages near El-ma'an, although Jowhar area had received the rainfall. A caller in Barawe, Lower Shabelle, said the rural areas had received little rainfall and that they had moved to the town with their livestock in search of water and fodder.

Rainfall – in Galmudug, many callers in Abudwak, Dusamareb, and Guriel said the rain was plentiful and livestock were recovering. One caller noted how quickly the ground was soaking up the water. In Middle Shabelle, several callers confirmed having rainfall. Two callers in Wanleweyn also appreciated the rain. Several callers in and around Baidoa said they and their farms were doing well with the rainfall. Also in Bay region, farmers in Berdale, Burdubo, and Burhakaba were happy with the rain. In Middle Juba, a caller in Harganti-Kusow said that while he was calling Radio Ergo he was standing on his farm now planted with crops.

The people were hoping for good produce and more rainfall. A caller in Buale said they'd been getting heavy rainfall in recent days and had recovered from the intense heat. In Gedo, several callers in Dollow said they were getting rain although it wasn't heavy and they hoped for more.
